Dear Louise:-

Your letter came yesterday glad to know you are alright; Helen was at Grandma's when we went down Sunday night; she thought the Schroeders would call us but may be they could not get us.

I sort of worried when I found the train was so late coming up. and know now that a letter from Grandma's can reach you very quickly and we can phone them if necessary. Pop is intending to come after you the 22nd but do not expect to get down before then, and we will bring the boxes and things then. Pop is real busy at chore times now so many barns of cows and no one to run the milking machine.

Hugo is here and a man will be
